

APPENDIX 3

EXPLORING AND PROMOTING MULTICULTURALISM	AND RELATED DISCOURSES
---	---------------------------------------

In connection with the work of the newly established Centre for Culture, Identity and Education (CCIE) and the David Lam Chair in Multicultural Education and with the support of the Faculty of Education's Network of Centres and Institutes in Education (NCIE), you are invited to attend an exploratory and planning meeting on Multiculturalism and Related Discourses.

March 23rd, 2006
1:30 - 3:00pm
Neville Scarfe 310.

Handel Wright, Canada Research Chair in Cultural Studies, Director of the CCIE and incoming David Lam Chair in Multicultural Education will coordinate the meeting. NCIE will provide refreshments.

Purpose: To share research projects and interests, plan activities, identify potential collaborators in multiculturalism and related discourses.

Participants: UBC Faculty and graduate students undertaking research or interested in the following areas and their employment in various fields:

Multiculturalism
Anti-racism
Interculturalism
Transnationalism
Cosmopolitanism
Cultural Studies
Social cohesion
Identity/identification politics

Please rsvp to Carole Wallace at the Network of Centres and Institutes in Education by March 3, 2006, by e-mail or phone:

e-mail:

tel:

Please indicate if you are interested in giving a short presentation on recently completed, ongoing or projected work (conceptual or empirical research) in any of the above areas and if so do provide a title and brief description.

If you are interested in the general project but unable to attend the meeting, please indicate in your rsvp message and leave your contact information.